WAVE COURSE MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR DEAF AND BLIND

Be Read, Should Be Pupils Who Are Not Able to Read, Is View of Educator.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Dec. 15.—The Utah School for the Deaf and Blind will close at noon next Friday for the holiday season and more than one hundred of the students will spend two weeks at their homes, according to Superintendent F. M. Driggs. For those who are not able to spend Christmas and New Year's day at their homes, there will be a Christmas tree and programme at the school chapel on the evening of December 24. All those remaining at the school will receive presents and it is not improbable that some of the good citizens of the state will provide additional good things for the unfortunate little ones who cannot spend the joy season of the year at their homes.

Next Tuesday Governor William Spry and the newly-elected members of the state legislature from Weber county will be in Ogden to inspect the school. They will inspect the improvements made by reason of the past appropriations and acquaint themselves with the work which has been accomplished with future proposed appropriations. Superintendent Driggs will submit his biennial report to Governor Spry tomorrow.

WIFE SEES HE WAS

WIFE'S RECENT GUEST DECLARES

"Jack Realizes Now He Was Jealous."

By International News Service.
CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Reasons which inspired the recent reconciliation and remarriage of Mr. and Mrs. "Jack" Cudahy and the hitherto secret history of the marriage were revealed today by Mrs. Edith Whitehead, one of Mrs. Cudahy's most intimate friends.

Mrs. Whitehead is at the Congress hotel. She has returned from Kansas City, where she was a guest in the Cudahy home.

"I don't want the public to think that I am betraying the confidence of friendship," said Mrs. Whitehead, "but I do want to tell the truth. Jack Cudahy was a woman who has always been placed in a false light before the public."

"I know positively because Mrs. Cudahy herself has told me the real story. Her adoration for her husband was inspired by her love for her children. She realized that as long as the two remained apart she could never exercise the same care over them that is now possible."

Mrs. Cudahy is bravely facing the world and is living with her husband in a happy home. She has never ceased to mourn the wrecking of the happiness of their domestic life. Mrs. Cudahy herself now admits that she was inspired by senseless and insane jealousy, which had no foundation.

"I want to pay this tribute to my friend Mrs. Cudahy. In spite of everything she has been a woman who has been the sweetest and most gracious woman I have ever known. Her adoration for her husband was inspired by her love for her children. She realized that as long as the two remained apart she could never exercise the same care over them that is now possible."

Mrs. Whitehead was formerly of Kansas City. At the time the Cudahys gained notoriety through the Lillie affair, Mrs. Whitehead was one of the most ardent of Mrs. Cudahy's friends and defenders and was then a resident of the Cudahy home.

The domestic life of the Cudahys since their remarriage has been happy, according to her friend.

Jack Cudahy is doing everything in his power to win back the respect of his wife," she continued. "Recently he presented her with a new $5000 automobile and since that time she and her children daily take long drives. He at last has settled down to serious work and spends much of his time superintending the operation of his farm, just outside Kansas City."

The minimum wage for women in New York City has been discussed.

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—After an exhaustive study of industrial conditions, Miss Ida M. Tarbell has concluded that married women and girls working in industrial life without pressing need, form one of the greatest dangers to civilization in this country.

Miss Tarbell has been paying special attention to the question of the minimum wage for women, and today declared: "The minimum wage for women in Boston should be set at $9, while in New York it should be $11 higher. I'd hate to have any girl I cared about working for less than $12 a week."

Discussing the observations she has made while gathering material for a new series of articles on the new business ethics of today, Miss Tarbell said: "Plenty of girls in New York are living on $6 a week and are keeping straight on it. It can be done, but how the girls do it is a mystery. Those girls living on those meager dollars and living right are the heroines of the age."

"The woman who lives on $6 a week and accepts a position for $6 a week makes it hard for the homeless and self-supporting girl to make a living—makes it hard for her to remain a good citizen."

"The woman who works for less than a living wage is the woman who marries and continues to work. She is the mother of the next generation of poverty."

"We've got to realize that marriage and the home are something more than two people living together and supporting themselves. We've got to realize that a function it is in the great scheme of things."

The whole basis of our social development is the family. In the first place there are children to be considered. A woman must give up her work or her education in a moment's notice to care for the children. The woman who works for less than a living wage is the woman who marries and continues to work. She is the mother of the next generation of poverty."

SHERIFF-ELECT OF JUAB COUNTY BURIED

Many Fraternal Organizations and Friends Attend Impressive Funeral.

Special to The Tribune.
EUREKA, Dec. 15.—Practically the entire city attended the funeral services of Frank Barrett, chief of the Eureka fire department, president of the state firemen's association, and the sheriff-elect of Juab county, who died in Salt Lake a few days ago.

The services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Catholic church. The Reverend Father O'Grady preached an eloquent funeral sermon.

The funeral cortege was more than a mile long and was preceded by the Eureka fire department and a band playing a dirge. Members of the Eureka Odd Fellows, the Rebekahs, the Macabees and the Woodmen followed.

Beautiful floral offerings were sent from the various fraternal organizations of which Barrett was a member, and from friends living in various parts of the state. The burial was in the Eureka City cemetery.

POTATOES PROFITABLE CROP.
Train Loads of Tubers Sent From Idaho to the Eastern Markets.

Special to The Tribune.
POCATELLO, Idaho, Dec. 15.—A train consisting of fifty-eight cars all loaded with potatoes passed through Pocatello yesterday morning. The potatoes were from the Idaho Falls, Shelly and Blackfoot districts, bound for eastern markets. Already 400 carloads of potatoes have been shipped out of this section and the remainder of the crop is being harvested.

Shipped. About 1000 acres of irrigated land in the Port Harbort were planted to potatoes this year. One farmer reported having dug 600 bushels from one acre. With a shipping price of 75 cents his profits were very good.

THRESHES OUT FIRE SEED.
Forest Service Employee Invents Machine Which Saves Money for Government.

Special to The Tribune.
LEHI, Dec. 15.—H. Work of the local office of the forest service, has invented a machine for threshing fire seed. From 8000 to 10,000 pounds of fire seed are being threshed out each year at the western offices of the forest service. The seed is being used to sow burned areas.

J. A. Pearson has been appointed supervisor of the Salmon national forest. The position was created by the resignation of R. F. Mathias.

Bringing Back Prisoner.
Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, Dec. 15.—A telegram was received yesterday from Sheriff George Judd, who went to Lincoln, Neb., for Charles Romero, wanted here for forgery, stating that Romero put up a fight in the governor's office at Lincoln and refused to be served with the Utah warrant, but that he would leave with his prisoner this morning.

MEXICAN REBELS CONTINUE ACTIVE

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 15.—Leaving behind the ruins of burned villages and the wrecked properties of hacienda owners, the rebel army is moving out in the state of Mexico into the states of Puebla and Morelos, particularly the latter.

In line with their tactics, they are declaring the issue in General Blanquet's campaign in the state of Mexico, even before it is fairly under way.

This doubtful success of General Blanquet in riding the state of Mexican insurrection is recognized at the capital as merely changing the field of operations. Numerous small fights have characterized the past week in which the federal forces have been victorious.

A passenger train under military escort was attacked. A freight train following the passenger train was also attacked by another band. The engineer left the throttle and ran for safety. There was a collision in which several persons were killed and a large number injured.

From the middle states, Michoacan, Guanajuato, Jalisco, Zacatecas and Durango, government officials are sending optimistic reports, but raiding and fighting continue.

Cheche Campor, one of the most prominent rebel leaders, who was reported in an official message as having been killed, is said to have gone to some place as far south as Jalisco.

A development last week which is causing some anxiety is the mysterious disappearance of a large number of laborers employed on haciendas south of the capital. It is taken for granted they have joined the rebellion.

The greatest cause for anxiety is the financial question. It is no secret that the nation needs money badly and it is officially admitted that fourteen states are being assisted from the central treasury.

The 20,000,000 peso loan authorized has not been floated. If a special session of congress is held it is not impossible that a few of the promised reforms will be enacted, but the popular opinion is that money and soldiers now would be more effective than reform.
